About Library

Modern Law College is popular for its legal literature in addition to infrastructure, teaching, and research excellence. The library shares equal responsibility in making MLC excellent law college. The library fosters the pursuit of academic excellence. The vision of the library is to be a knowledge hub providing efficient services.

The library has a vast collection of books, law reports and print journals, newspapers, reference books and e-books, huge resources in the field of law and other allied subjects.

It provides a comfortable and sufficient space for reading, research, reference, interaction and digital access to library resources. The library is fully equipped with necessary digital facilities to create an ambiance conducive to productive reading and research. It offers an environment that supports creativity, flexibility and collaboration. It also has separate 'discussion rooms' that are made available for group discussions. Library provides extensive e-resources access to its patrons 24x7 within and off the campus.
